The warm embrace under the moon and stars
A friendly greeting of arms wrapping hearts
The gaggle of friends gathered to pay homage
To the spring sun's shine in the garden
We were spoiled for all so long
Taken for granted were the times of such love
But with smiles behind masks and
Hands outstretched to only one's own
We are given an opportunity to reflect
Upon what togetherness means
A sense of overwhelming grief
Leads the way to healing goodbyes
That resulted without embrace
Or understanding
A scenario so malevolent
That fear forbid the mind of logic
But as spring turns to summer
And the planet plays her own game
With lilacs and violets
We see the path to an end
But only wisdom shall prevail
An empathy not disguised by duality
Rather a solidarity
Of respect
Love
And memory
Let it all not be for naught
Their names will be etched
Their memory will live on
Goddamned politics aside
To a future where once again
We embrace under the moon.

Embrace-

—Billy Jack Paul
